The 7 November Consumers' Cooperative in Braila was created in 1950 by the merger of several smaller cooperatives, including 9 May and Intrecerea Socialista. The Cooperative supplies the members with foodstuffs, textiles, fancy goods, shoes and leather goods, et cetera. The central depot is located at 68 Republicii Boulevard, Braila. There are 112 sales stores located throughout the town. The main office and all sales stores had a total of 400 employees in 1951. The Cooperative has 14,000 members in Braila, all workers. Before stabilization the annual turnover was one hundred million lei.
